The Šipan-seminar was established in 2003. Over the past eighteen years more than 450 young leaders from Central, Eastern and Southeast Europe have benefitted. The five-day seminar is an opportunity for 25 participants to discuss, improve and enhance their knowledge and skills on current European and transatlantic affairs. The interaction with renowned European professionals, diplomats and academics provides a great networking opportunity.

Who should apply: young leaders interested in European and international affairs

Topics: the future of the EU; the global role of Europe; EU enlargement; crisis management; European foreign and security policy; economic recovery of Europe; Europe's soft power; foreign trade, development cooperation

Methodology: discussions, debates, workshops and simulations. The seminar language is Croatian and English.

Costs: Programme, accommodation, breakfast and dinner are covered by the organisers.
